

2021 Global TB Clinical and Educational Summit

Join international experts at the CPD-accredited summit and get the latest insights in TB control and prevention.

All presentations will be available in English, German, Spanish, Portuguese and Chinese.

Program

Day 1: Wednesday, September 29 (all times in ET)

9.00–9.05		Summit open and welcome Prof. Onn Min Kon, Consultant Respiratory Physician, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust, England
9.05–9.30		The history of TB Prof. Pere-Joan Cardona, Professor of Microbiology at the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona and Chief of the Microbiology Department at the Hospital Universitari Germans Trias I Pujol, Spain
9.30–9.55		Catastrophic costs Dr. Tom Wingfield, Senior Clinical Lecturer and Honorary Consultant Physician, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, England
9.55–10.20		Toward a microbiological biomarker of latent tuberculosis infection Prof. Adrian Martineau, Clinical Professor of Respiratory Infection and Immunity at Barts and The London School of Medicine and Dentistry, England
10.20–10.35		Panel discussion and questions
10.35–10.45		Break
10.45–11.10		COVID-19 and impact on TB control Dr. Christian Gunneberg, Public Health Specialist, Global Tuberculosis Programme, World Health Organization
11.10–11.35		Interaction of COVID-19 and TB Prof. Giovanni Battista Migliori, Director of the World Health Organization (WHO) Collaborating Centre for Tuberculosis and Lung Diseases at the Fondazione S. Maugeri and Chair of the Global Tuberculosis Network (GTN), Italy
11.35–11.50		Panel discussion and questions
11.50–12.00		Close of Day 1

Day 2: Thursday, September 30 (all times in ET)

9.00–9.05		Summit open and welcome Prof. Onn Min Kon, Consultant Respiratory Physician, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust, England
9.05–9.30	 	Pregnancy and TB Dr. Heinke Kunst, Honorary Consultant in Respiratory Medicine at Barts Health NHS trust, England and Dr. Ananna Rahman, Mid and South Essex NHS Foundation Trust, England
9.30–9.55		Pediatrics and TB Dr. James Seddon, Clinical Senior Lecturer at Imperial College London, England and Honorary Consultant in Pediatric Infectious Diseases and Honorary Associate Professor at Stellenbosch University in Cape Town, South Africa

Day 2: Thursday, September 30 (all times in ET)

9.55–10.20

Overlap between SARS CoV-2, HIV-1 and M. tuberculosis infections

Prof. Robert Wilkinson, Senior Group Leader at The Francis Crick Institute, London and Wellcome Senior Fellow in Clinical Science at Imperial College London, England

10.20–10.35

Panel discussion and questions

10.35–10.45

Break

10.45–11.10

Biologic screening update

Dr. Delia Goletti, Head of the Translational Research Unit, National Institute for Infectious Diseases L. Spallanzani, Rome, Italy

11.10–11.35

Interaction between biological therapies and latent tuberculosis infection in immune-mediated inflammatory diseases

Dr. Jean-Pierre Zellweger, TB consultant, Swiss Lung Association, Switzerland

11.35–12.05

Cutaneous tuberculosis: an overview

Prof. Archana Singal, Director Professor, Dermatology and STD University College of Medical Sciences and GTB Hospital, University of Delhi, India

12.05–12.15

Panel discussion and questions

12.15–12.30

Close of Day 2

Day 3: Friday, October 1 (all times in ET)

9.00–9.05

Summit open and welcome

Prof. Onn Min Kon

9.05–9.30

LTBI: Testing and treatment

Dr. Jonathan Golub, Professor of Medicine, Epidemiology and International Health, John Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland, USA

9.30–9.55

TB and dialysis update

Prof. Onn Min Kon, Consultant Respiratory Physician, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust, London, England

9.55–10.20

Impact of COVID-19 on TB on the US Public Health Service and communities

Dr. Alawode Oladele, DeKalb County Board of Health, Georgia, USA

10.20–10.30

Panel discussion and questions

10.30–10.40

Break

10.40–11.05

An update on TB and healthcare workers

Wendy Todaro Thanassi, Chief, Occupational Health, VA Palo Alto Health Care System and Associate Clinical Professor, Population, Health and Epidemiology, Stanford, California, USA

11.05–11.30

Update on TB treatment – 2021

Prof. Graham Bothamley, Honorary Professor and Consultant Physician, Head of Department Homerton University Hospital, Queen Mary University London and London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

11.30–11.45

Panel discussion and questions

11.45–12.00

Close of Day 3

For more information, visit: www.qiagen.com/TB-summit-2021

Trademarks: QIAGEN®, Sample to Insight®. Registered names, trademarks, etc. used in this document, even when not specifically marked as such, may still be protected by law.
1125729 PROM-19083-002 09/2021 © 2021 QIAGEN, all rights reserved.